And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped Him in swaddling cloths, and laid Him in a manger because there was no place for them in the inn (Luke 2:7).

In this verse we read of that which is so common—birth, diapers, and manger. Birth and diapers are common, but, you say, what about the manger? True, that is not a common place to lay a new born in our society, but then we are wealthy. For how many people in our world would this be true? If they do not lay their newborns in a manger, then what they lay them in is probably not too far removed. He came in poverty even as so many in our world live in poverty. This birth was so common that hardly anyone noticed. Certainly, it was not a birth like that of a king, was it? Remember when the first child of Prince Charles and Princess Di or any of the “royals” was born. It was heralded by the world’s media. But this birth, who cared? A few shepherds, wakened from their sleep, went to the stable. Sometime later some “crazy” magi who followed a star showed up. If someone told you today that they were following a star, what would you call them? Yet, it is this birth that we are about to celebrate. This birth is so important that we now spend a month in preparation for the coming of this son of Mary. This birth changed history.

While we spend most of our time during the coming days preparing to celebrate the birth of Jesus we also celebrate His coming to us both today and in the future. We begin with Advent, which begins on December 2 this year. In the Holy Gospel Jesus reminds us that we will see the Son of Man coming in clouds with great power and glory. He warns us that we are to watch. While that may be read as a warning, it is better read as a promise. It is the promise of our Lord that He will come at the end of all time. Even as we prepare to celebrate the beginning of the story with the birth in the manger, we are reminded that the One who was born in the manger has promised that He will come again at the end of all time. Thus, even before we begin the story, we know the end of the story. It ends in Christ. No matter what we experience between now and then we know that all ends in Christ. That is His promise to us. It is a promise that gives us hope in the midst of the chaos and despair in our lives. The next two weeks we will read of John the Baptist proclaiming that One is coming who will baptize with the Holy Spirit. And again, we celebrate that the One who was born in that manger continues to come to us today in the Word that He proclaims to us and through the Holy Sacraments. The living Christ is present in us and among us yet, even now. When we hear the Word proclaimed, He is present with us. When we receive the bread and the wine, His very body and blood, He is present in us and with us. When the water of Holy Baptism washes over us He is present. Thus, it is that in Advent that we prepare not just for a Christmas celebration of His birth and coming to our world thousands of years ago, but for the coming of our very Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, who has promised that He will come to us at the end of all time and who comes to us even today and every day. Advent and Christmas is indeed the celebration of the presence of God through Jesus among us. Thanks be to God!

How wonderful it is to give thanks and praise to our God who has chosen to come to us in that which is so common—a birth, words, water, bread, and wine. These are things of everyday life. God came down to us at Christmas, but He has also drawn us up to Himself. He has redeemed that which rejected Him. He has given dignity to His rebelling creation through re-creation. Life begins again because of that birth, the diapers, and the manger. May you have a Blessed Christmas!

In Christ’s Name,
Pastor David A. Aanonson

Stephen Ministry

An easy yet powerful resource

Holy Redeemer's Stephen Ministry team has become familiar with an easy yet powerful resource. It is available to anyone in the congregation who might know of someone who is grieving the loss of a loved one.

'Journeying through Grief' is a set of four short books to send to grieving people at four crucial times during the first year after a loss. It is an easy way to show you care and to offer God's powerful love to someone you know who is moving through a period of mourning.

The books explain the grief process to help people understand that their experience is normal, natural and necessary. Feelings that typically surface during the first year after a loss are described. There are suggestions for healing and healthy ways to express and deal with feelings.

Grief is looked at from a biblical perspective, gently helping people work through any faith struggles they might be experiencing. Hope is provided that—even when they might not see it or feel it—God is present, working from the inside out to heal a broken heart.

When your neighbor or co-worker or extended family member or anyone in your life loses a loved one, this resource may be a loving way for you to reach out. It may let your grieving friend know that someone is thinking about them, empathizing with their pain, praying for them...that someone really does care.

Jill, a hairdresser from Georgia has said, "The books were so helpful to me, I now give them to customers who've lost someone. It's my way to care beyond the chair."

Copies of 'Journeying through Grief' are available at church or online. If you would like to have a set of them to send to someone in your life, please talk to Marti or David.

"He heals the broken-hearted and binds up their wounds."

Youth News

December 2 - Calling all HRLC youth!

Mark your calendars for a fun afternoon!

On Sunday, December 2, we'd like to invite our youth (and they can invite a friend) to join us for some holiday fun.

We'd like to join the congregation as they go to Target West following church to shop for the Grateful Grannies. The youth can shop together and enjoy the snacks and drinks provided by Target.

Immediately following this shopping extravaganza, depending on showtimes, we'd like to go to see the Grinch movie at the AMC Westdale. Showtimes have not been posted, so more details to follow.

Please provide Lora and Nicole an idea of how many youth are interested in attending so we can arrange enough transportation.

Looking forward to a great time!

Children's Christmas Program

This year's Children's Christmas Program is on Sunday, December 16. Directly following the Christmas Program will be the Cookie Walk!

Parents, if you are interested in having your child participate in the Program, please talk to Nicole Hubbell.

Please mark your calendars and join us in making some fun memories together. See Nicole Hubbell for more information.

Sunday School

In December, we will not have a Sunday School class. We will be having other fun activities for the youth to be involved in during December. On December 2, the youth are invited to help with the Grateful Grannies Christmas shopping after the service.

We will not hold a Sunday School class on December 16 due to the Cookie Walk and the Children's Christmas Program that day. Also, Sunday School will not be held on December 30 due to the children being on the Christmas break.

Confirmation Students Deliver Meals

On Wednesday, November 14, our confirmation students and their mentors went shopping at Hy-Vee. They purchased food to provide two families in southwest Cedar Rapids Thanksgiving meals.

On Sunday, November 18, the students and mentors delivered the meals to the two families after the Sunday worship service.

A big THANK YOU to the students and mentors who helped give 2 families a happy Thanksgiving!

Confirmation Students & Mentors Shop for Meals

Below are the Advent dates we would like the confirmation youth to participate in:

- Sunday, Dec 2
- Sunday, Dec 9
- Sunday, Dec 16
- Sunday, Dec 23

You can email Nicole Hubbell at: nmhubbell@gmail.com.

Reformation Roast Thank You

On Sunday, October 28, the youth held a Reformation Roast and Fall Funfest after the Council Meeting.

Good food and fun were had by all who attended.

Thank you to all who helped support the youth by making this a success for the youth!

Reformation Roast

Good Fellowship!

Advent Services – Youth Needed

We are looking for mentors and confirmation students to volunteer to read and light the advent candles during the church services during Advent.

Because there are only 4 services and because schedules may be challenging, please send Nicole Hubbell an e-mail telling her which days' work best for your child or for each mentor. Nicole will then determine how we can best accommodate all that are interested in participating. The Youth & Ed Committee look for a way for all youth interested in participating to have that opportunity. Nicole Hubbell will work with Pastor Dave on assigning roles during the Advent season.
